始於1981年，張氏金業有限公司於香港為零售客戶提供港金、倫敦金及倫敦銀的買賣交易。由1983年至今，張氏金業不但是香港金銀業貿易場的會員(會員編號108)，更是少數獲該場認可之鑄金行^(註1)暨AA級交易商^(註2)。

張氏金業有限公司之董事張德熙先生，於2010-2014年間擔任香港金銀業貿易場之理事長。透過與金銀業貿易場的合作，張氏金業盡力為投資者爭取理想的買賣價位，令他們可充分利用黃金防通脹、強保值、重避險及易套現的特性，作資產管理。

(註1) 截至2013年初，香港金銀業貿易場共有171名會員商行，其中僅有30家獲該場授予鑄金執照。

(註2) AA級交易商為香港金銀業貿易場認可進行最多交易類別之行員，包括香港99金、香港9999金、本地1號銀條、本地倫敦金銀，以及人民幣公斤條的買賣交易

Since 1981, Cheung's Gold Traders Limited (CGTL) has been a major player in Hong Kong's international retail gold trading operations as well as London gold and silver. In 1983, CGTL became a member (member number 108) of The Chinese Gold and Silver Exchange Society (CGSE) and was granted a Gold Minting License^(Note 1) and an AA License^(Note 2) verifying the company as an exchange operator for the London gold market. Company director, Mr. Haywood Cheung also served as a President of the Chinese Gold and Silver Exchange Society from 2010 to 2014. In co-operation with the CGSE, Cheung's Gold Traders Ltd. offers favourable prices to investors, while expertly assisting in the management of their gold investments.

(Note 1) A Gold Minting License bypasses the restraints of bullion trading in Hong Kong. Among the 171 CGSE members, only 30 have been granted this special license.

(Note 2) An AA License is the highest grade of membership and grants the licensee the right to trade Hong Kong 99 gold, Hong Kong 9999 gold, Hong Kong silver 1 bar, London gold and silver, and Renminbi Kilobar gold.

ITALIAN Jewelry

Through The Ages

Italy's Jewelry manufacturing process and distinctive artistry has kept its jewelers in the spotlight on a global scale. Italian firms rely on their strong heritage and exceptional craftsmanship to drive growth in an ever-changing global business environment.

The worldwide jewelry industry has been facing difficulties in these years, with industry players dealing with economic and political uncertainty, fluctuating currencies, and shifting customer preferences. In the face of adversity, Italian jewelers remain their foothold with strong jewelry-making tradition, innate innovation, aesthetic design, exquisite craftsmanship, and world-class manufacturing skills.

When Classic meets Modern

The unique vision of Italian Jewelry is its harmony that combines past, and present in contemporary design, marrying Italian Jewelry's old-world traditions with modern flights of fancy. International buyers and retailers are clamoring for "Made in Italy" masterpieces, and jewelry collectors are more than ever proud to own Italian jewels. Rather than being disposable fast fashion items, Italian jewels are valued assets that could be worn for a lifetime.

If technology drives industry growth, the "Made in Italy" concept is the ace in the hole for Italian jewelers who are outsmarting worldwide competitors. In a world flooded with mass-produced Jewelry, Italian manufacturers can "leverage their great heritage." Italian Jewelry has a long and glorious cultural history, as well as decades of artistic admiration. Because of the tremendous attention and demand for Italian jewelers' handmade crafts, the early goldsmiths ignited the perfect spark for the impeccable quality of "Made in Italy" jewels. Designers were affected by various cultural beliefs throughout the Roman Empire's heyday, which is why they place such a high value on quality and innovation today.

Carrying On Italy's Tradition of Superior Craftsmanship

Italian jewelers share an artistic sense, a deep reverence for their ancestors' tradition, and a sincere dedication to world-class artistry and craftsmanship. Jewels of Italy integrate elegance, design, and originality, with jewelers adhering to artisan traditions with the assistance of extraordinary goldsmiths. The "past" served as a source of inspiration for Italian jewelers, with reinterpretations of styles such as Classicism, Renaissance, Baroque, and Rococo. Cameos and decorative motifs from the Greeks, Etruscans, Romans, and antique goldsmithing and carving techniques are employed. The one-of-a-kind jewelry pieces reflect the designers' and jewelers' pride in their hometown, Italy, as well as a love of luxury, beauty, and unique style.

Made in Italy Around the World

"Made in Italy" has long been associated with quality and uniqueness, as well as beauty, style, and passion. The Italian Trade Agency promotes "Made in Italy" by assisting Italian companies with global expansion and serves as the ideal gateway for businesses seeking to build trade relationships with Italian partners, ranging from product sourcing to investment opportunities. This booklet, Jewels of Italy, was produced to promote the uniqueness of "Made in Italy" jewels and respond to the rising interest of global buyers in Italian jewels.

This booklet features the best of contemporary Italian Jewelry, which spans a century of significant leaps in the industry. It is a thorough guide for international buyers looking for quality "Made in Italy" jewels and exclusive, stunning, and remarkable collections.
